The Jolene Roxbury Variety Hour is hilarious and full of fun for the entire family.

The show is truly a unique program that provides a silly safe-haven where listeners are invited to have a good time and escape the seriousness of the daily news and provocative political banter.

The healing power of laughter has broad appeal, which is one reason why variety shows are making a huge comeback.

Now in their 8th joyous year on radio, the Roxbury Players' lovable characters, musical parodies and satire engage listeners and serve up an hour of consistently entertaining programming.

The voices ... the voices!

"There is so much bad news in reality that besieged Americans are looking to escape. You don't have to think - mindless entertainment does have its place - it's big." - Bill O'Reilly's Talking Points

"Great addition as an alternative to all the politically driven talk available out there, Roxbury provides a needed break from the usual, intense talk of News Radio. Also, the download is always available on time and easy to navigate." - Bob Woody, Program Director Cumulus, Montgomery, Alabama

"There is nothing like this show on the radio today. Jolene has taught listeners on the West Coast the art of 'visiting' on Saturday nights. We love it!" - Aaron Johnson, Program Director of Eureka Radio in Eureka, California

"Jolene and the Roxbury Players create an environment of whimsical fun that has endeared her to people of the Muscle Shoals, Alabama, listening area. Her show is a call-to-action and that action is laughter! The commercials she and her team create grab the listener's attention.

This is most important to our advertisers and, therefore, our bottom line." - Benji Carle, Station Owner, The Talk of North Alabama, WBCF AM/FM

"Jolene's show has been an excellent addition to our weekend programming since 2009. Having access to her creative production team has enabled our sales staff to offer something extraordinary to our local advertisers, which gives them (and us) an edge over the competition. She has built great client relationships and her commercials and show are funnier than hell!" - Bill Roth, Sales Manager, Bigler Broadcasting, Mobile, Alabama, FMTALK 1065

"My company's affiliation with Jolene has brought in more new business than anything I've done in 30 years. She has impacted my business so much that two years ago I made the decision to dedicate my advertising dollars exclusively to her affiliate station." - Jack Greene, Independent Insurance Agent, Mobile, Alabama
